SUPPORTING MATERIALS

1

- Please submit all of the required (officials letters, Photo, short BIO) named with the sub-titles as shown in the Nomination Form.
- Whenever possible, kindly add to the nomination any available information material on the candidate/s work. This material shall not be returned to sender.
- Additional documents may be added to the nomination form, in order to extend the information provided therein. Relevant documents and letters of support may be appended.

GENERAL

- Two or three candidates may be nominated to receive the Prize jointly. In this case, each candidate should be submitted in a separate form, with the name of the jointly filed candidate inserted into the appropriate place. If a joint nomination is for collaborative work, please state this at the beginning of the Brief Description section. The brief description of the collaborative work conducted need not be repeated in relation to the joint candidate. You may, however, wish to describe each candidate's specific role.
- You may also propose an additional nominee (unrelated to the first one) on a separate form.
- The Wolf Foundation may request required additional information, either from the institution where the candidate is active or from the candidate him/herself, indicating that he/she has been nominated for the prize but without mentioning the nominator's name.
- FIELD OF NOMINATION - In accordance with the Wolf Prize principle of rotation in Sciences, the Prize in Medicine will not be awarded in 2018, A candidate can be nominated for only one of the following four fields: Agriculture - Chemistry - Mathematics – Physics

LIMITATIONS ON NOMINATIONS

Please note the following limitations imposed by our Prize Guidelines:

- The Prize is awarded to individuals, not to institutions;
- A person cannot be nominated by him/herself;
- A Nobel Prize Laureate will not be considered, unless his/her nomination is proposed for an achievement entirely different from the one that won him/her the Nobel Prize;
- According to the "Wolf Foundation Law - 1975", the awards shall be presented in person by the President of the State of Israel in a special ceremony in Jerusalem. Nominators are therefore requested not to propose any candidates who, to the best of their knowledge, may not be able to attend the Ceremony.

SECRECY

2

The nominator is not bound to keep his role secret, and may inform the candidate(s), or any other person(s), of the candidacy.

DEADLINE

Nominations must be received no later than september 15th, 2017, if they are to be reviewed for the 2018 Prize. Proposals received after this date shall be considered only for the following year.

Please send the material in an electronic version via email only.
